

SUNDAY WEEKEND RECOVERY GROUP

The Sunday Weekend Recovery Group was started in 1987 and was located above Kinley's Jewelry on West Fourth Street. The early members of the group and founders of the group are unknown. The group was started because there was a need for an afternoon meeting on Sunday. The meeting time was originally 1:00 pm. It is now at 2:00 pm. The meeting moved from Kinley's to Peg and Bill's restaurant on West Fourth Street. It then moved to Dale's in the Basin Street Plaza. It is now located at St. Boniface Catholic Church on Washington Boulevard.

The meeting format is Big Book, 12 steps and 12 traditions, topic and speaker. The group has grown dramatically, from 10 people initially to approximately 80 people a meeting today.

There were some challenges with the 7th tradition in the beginning due to the small attendance – it has grown to a really big meeting today.
