The Three Legacies of AA

Recovery: The First Legacy — It is traditional in AA that we do not make speeches; we talk about our own experiences and about the experiences of those around us.

Unity: The Second Legacy — Today we in AA are together, and we know we are going to stay together. We are at peace with each other and with the world around us. So many of our conflicts are resolved that our destiny seems secure.

Service: The Third Legacy — We must carry A.A.'s message; otherwise we ourselves may fall into decay and those who have not yet been given the truth may die.

Step Three

Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understand Him.

It is when we try to make our will conform with God's that we begin to use it rightly. To all of us, this was a most wonderful revelation. Our whole trouble had been the misuse of willpower. We had tried to bombard our problems with it instead of attempting to bring it into agreement with God's intention for us. To make this increasingly possible is the purpose of A.A.'s Twelve Steps, and Step Three opens the door.
